

Resources to help you promote a career in public health

For school teachers, college tutors & anyone helping those interested in a career in public health (also known as population health)

What is public health?

A simple guide to public health, why it's important and how you can get involved

A brief history of public health

Take a look at the four waves of public health development since the 19th century

Why work in public health?

Explore the skills and knowledge to be gained through a career in public health

Public health careers

Research the diverse roles available within public health

The Public Health Skills and Knowledge Framework

Introduce the framework that can help plan a career in public health

Example career routes and entry points for public health

Offer help in taking the first step towards a career in public health

Apprenticeships in public health

Consider an apprenticeship to kickstart a career in public health

Search for public health opportunities

Local government jobs →
NHS jobs →
Volunteering →

Faculty of Public Health - specialty training

An overview of public health training, including course information and downloads

Professional registration

Learn about UKPHR - an independent regulator for public health professionals

Diversity of public health careers

Shine a spotlight on public health roles with this collection of personal stories

Learn more about public/population health

Click here for more resources!

Learn more about public health

For school teachers, college tutors & anyone helping those interested in a career in public health (also known as population health)

Other key organisational links

Public Health England

A blog giving insight into the organisation's work and all aspects of public health

Royal Society for Public Health

An independent charity dedicated to improving and protecting people's health

Association of Directors of Public Health

Group which represents and supports Directors of Public Health

Local Government Association

Membership body working with councils to support and improve local government

Learning opportunities

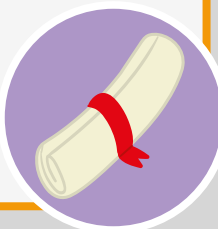

Population health e-Learning portal

Education and training for those working in public health

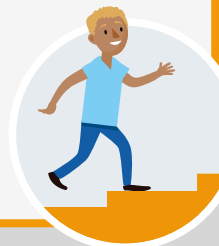

Open online courses in public health

'Foundations of Public Health Practice' offered by Imperial College London

Faculty of Public Health

Continuing professional development for those in the public health workforce

Royal College of Nursing

Resources for nursing staff working in public health

Further resources

Health Education England YouTube channel

Supporting the delivery of healthcare and health improvement to patients and public

Public health profiles

Facts and figures about important health and wellbeing issues across the country

All Our Health Framework

For professionals working to prevent illness, protect health and promote wellbeing

What is population health?

A variety of resources supporting a holistic approach to keeping communities healthy

